

GAME OF THRONES IS BACK!

Jaime Lannister: 'Anyone could die this season'

CORRIE'S BROOKE

'Mum hates seeing me drunk in the papers!'

THE GOOD. THE MAD. THE UNMISSABLE.

Issue 881 23 - 29 April 2016

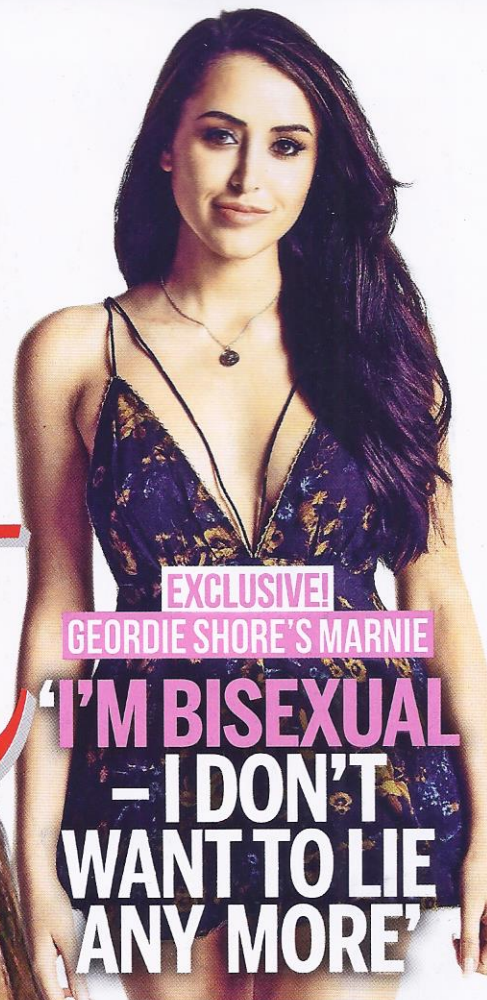

Heat

WWW.HEATWORLD.COM

EXCLUSIVE!

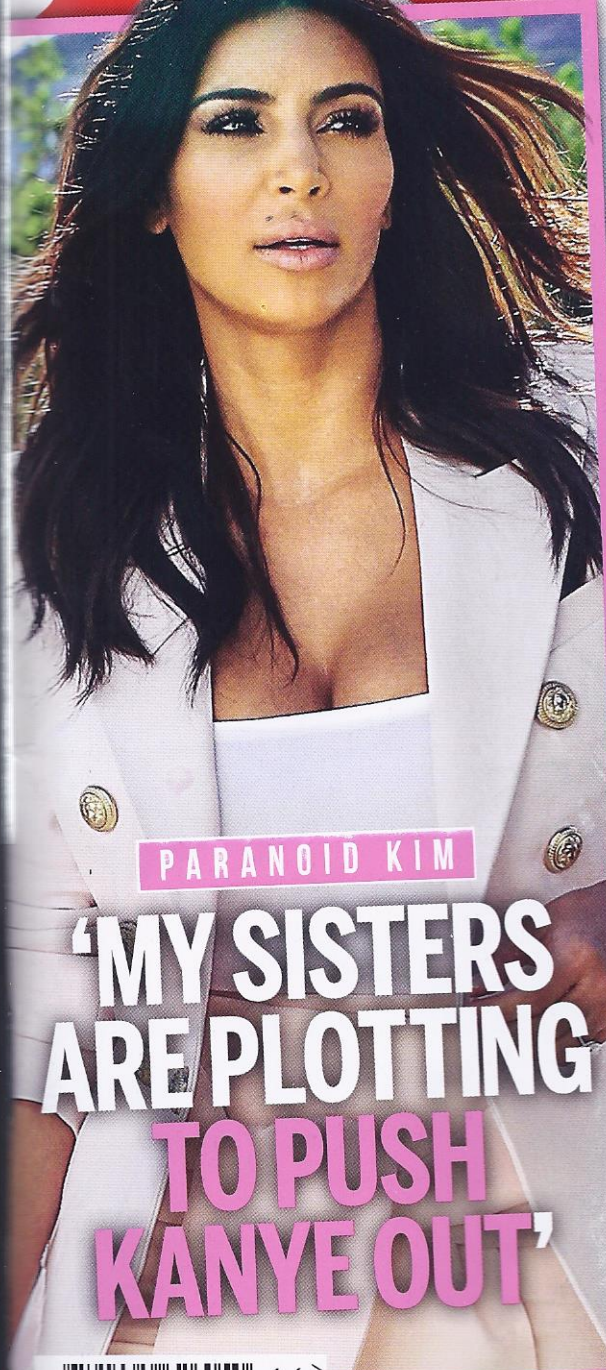

GEORDIE SHORE'S MARNIE

'I'M BISEXUAL - I DON'T WANT TO LIE ANY MORE'

PARANOID KIM

'MY SISTERS ARE PLOTTING TO PUSH KANYE OUT'

CHERYL'S BITTER DIVORCE BATTLE

'I'm scared it will ruin things with Liam'

JB'S STILL WEARING HIS RING

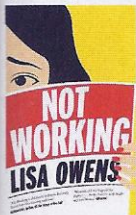

9 771465 626050

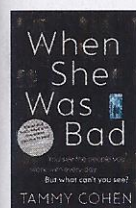

£1.65 Spain & Canaries €2.90; France €3.40; Germany €4.00; Greece €3.20

1 THE MISSING
CL TAYLOR
(AVON, £7.99)
A twisty thriller about a missing teen will keep you up all night. ★★★★★

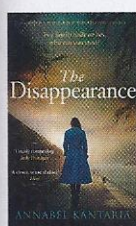

2 NOTWORKING
LISA OWENS
(PICADOR, £12.99)
A high-out-loud hilarious tale of a girl trying not to fail at life. ★★★★★

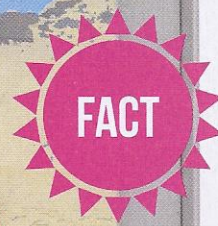

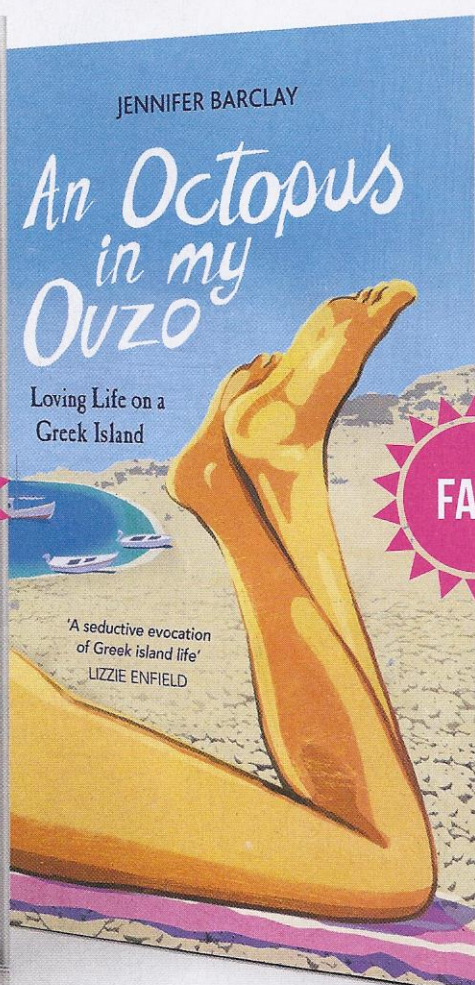

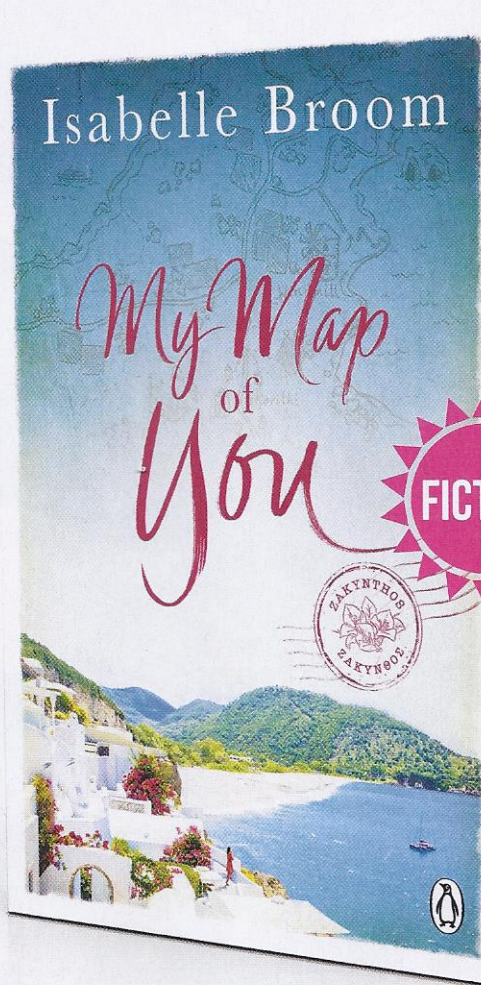

WHEN SHE WAS BAD
TAMMY COHEN
(BLACK SWAN, £6.99)
Brilliantly tense and ingeniously sharp thriller set in an office. ★★★★★

THE MISSING HOURS
EMMA KAVANAGH
(CENTURY, £16.99)
A second missing-child drama, but this time with added scares. ★★★★★

THE DISAPPEARANCE
ANNABEL KANTARIA
(MIRA, £7.99)
A chillingly smart and gripping drama set on a cruise ship. ★★★★★

GREECE IS THE WORD

HEAD OFF ON HOLIDAY WITHOUT EVER LEAVING YOUR SOFA...

My Map Of You Isabelle Broom (PENGUIN, £7.99)

Written by heat's own Books Editor, this is the story of Holly, who goes to the Greek island of Zakynthos after inheriting a house from an aunt she never knew existed. There, Holly starts to discover a lot about her past – and herself – as she travels around the island with a map drawn by her mother over 20 years ago. Helping her retrace her mum's footsteps is hot next-door neighbour Aidan, which would be fine and dandy if a) Holly didn't fancy the pants off him, and b) she didn't already have a boyfriend at home.

Anyone who's been to Greece will recognise the cast of locals that Holly encounters, and the descriptions of Zakynthos will have you instantly looking for holidays there. Holly's not an entirely likeable character – in fact she's downright annoying at times – but that's just one of the reasons this book is more than a cut above the usual chick-lit offerings. With its flawed central character, beautifully-written descriptions of Greece and spot-on depictions of everyday dilemmas, My Map Of You should be top of your holiday reading list. ★★★★★ JULIE EMERY

An Octopus In My Ouzo Jennifer Barclay

(SUMMERSDALE, £9.99)

Two years ago, Jennifer Barclay wrote a book entitled Falling In The Honey Pot, which told the true story of how one rubbish relationship too many persuaded her to leave London behind and create a new life for herself on the tiny Greek island of Tilos. This follow-up charts the next stage of her adventure, and is every bit as vibrant, humorous, honest and fascinating as the original tale. If, like us, you're drawn to the rugged natural beauty of the Greek islands and the unique charm of the folk living there, then this memoir will be a pure joy – we laughed out loud in delighted recognition many times. But, having said that, this book isn't simply a collection of amusing anecdotes involving rogue goats, it's also a touching love story – one that grows increasingly poignant as the author and her gentle Greek boyfriend begin to try for a baby. Proving that running off into the sunset is just the start of a happily ever after, this inspiring true story is an unforgettable gem. ★★★★★ ISABELLE BROOM